

Made a Lifetime

How to Dress Well

Playing hands, touching, shaping
Whisper, waking up a baby
See the sun is rising later
Still the people bodies shaking
See the whole heart on their faces
Kiss your best friend name it later!
Make a lifetime from a feeling

Waiting

Waiting

Waiting See you in the hallway
Right from the beginning
If you need help living
Then let me know
You're always so caring
Yet make it so thrilling
If you ever need a hand then
Just let me know Yeah See you in the hallway
Right at the beginning
If there's another way to feel this
Just let me know Always so caring
Yet make it so thrilling
If you ever need a hand then
Just let me know I'll always be indebted
To how warm skin is
If you ever wanna feel it
Just let me know
What a wild thing is
To only be living
If you ever need care then
Just let me know
