Glow

I See Stars

I am a man of a million things that you can't stand
You're just a girl that's everything not in my world
Cause I stop, and you go
And I run, too slow but let me go, go, goIt's in the palm of your hands
If you threw it away it would be just to say you did(Ooo-Woah,Ooo-Woah-O)
I should have known, not to trust you
You were too good to be true
And then your kiss left a taste on my lips
And your eyes how they glowI've got a question for you,
How many hearts does it take for you to get straight through just one city
Cause I stop, and you go
And I run, too slow but let me go, go, go!It's in the palm of your hands
If you threw it away it would be just to say you did(Ooo-Woah,Ooo-Woah-O)
I should have known, not to trust you
You were too good to be true
And then your kiss left a taste on my lips
And your eyes how they glow*I'm taking back what's mine
You took it from me and I want it back
What is rightfully mine
You'll never see our faces again!*You're feeling cornered
Try being the victims of your lies
You say it's torture
I think it's time for you to go
It's really time for you to goWoooaahhhh!!![x6](You're feeling cornered
Try being the victims of your lies
You say it's torture
I think it's time for you to go
It's really time for you to go)
