Be Aware

Bobby Lee

When the sun is warm where you are
And it?s comfortable and safe
Where you are,
Well, it?s not exactly that way all over.
There somewhere in the world
Someone is cold.
Be aware!
And while you?re feeling young
Someone is old.
Be aware!
And while your stomach?s full
Somewhere in this world
Someone is hungry.
When there is so much
Should anyone be hungry?

When there?s laughter all around me
And my family and friends surround me.
If I seem to be forgetful,
Remind me
That somewhere in the world
People are weak
Be aware!
And while you speak your mind
Others can?t speak.
Be aware!
And while your children sleep
Somewhere in this world
A child is homeless
When we have so much
Should any child be homeless?
Oh, no.
Not even one child
Be aware!
