

You Reap What You Sow

Classy Silhouette

Oh hoo hoo hoo hoo
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
Ooo Hoo Hoo Hoo Hoo
I've had it up to here
With you and your games
Ever since I found you out
I just don't see you the same
You were cheating all along
Telling all those crazy lies
You better watch your step
You're not very wise
Who do you think you are
Treating me the way that you do
When will you realize
Every little thing you do
It will all come back on you
Oh Oh
You Reap What you sow
That's why I'm gonna let go
You Reap what you sow
It all comes back don't you know
You Reap What You sow
I'm gonna let you go
You Reap What You Sow
It all comes back don't you know
So You think you've got it made
With all the games you play
Sooner or later your lies
Will turn all your friends away
The Truth will soon come out
And they'll know what you're about
You better watch your back baby
They're gonna find you out
Who do you think you are
Treating me the way that you do
When will you realize
Every little thing you do
It will all come back on you
You Reap what you sow

That's why I'm gonna let you go
You reap what you sow
That's why I'm gonna let you go
You reap what you sow
You reap what you sow
It's gonna comeback don't you know
Every little thing you've done to me
It's all coming back
Full force baby
And when it hits you
You'll remember me
