The Best Has Yet To Come

Giants At Large

So I'm staring at the bed where I kissed her goodnight
Back four days ago when the whole world felt right
It's got me feeling so low
Now she's headed back down to the sunshine state
The very same place that destroyed what I created
It's got me feeling so low
It's got me feeling all alone tonightCan't fight this feeling, noNow they say it must go wrong before it goes right
But it seems the right just never caught his flight
Yeah it's got me feeling so low
Now I'm praying to a god I don't know even exists
Hoping he can somehow just get me through this
It's got me feeling so low
It's got me feeling all alone tonightHold on kid the best has yet to come
