

The Places You Find Love

Barbra Streisand

It was raining when I met you
You were soaking wet no time to be impressed
And I remember so much later on
I knew that you were someone I would not forget Everybody's searching hungry for the glamor
You know too many hearts are in a rush
No matter how you try to, you can't explain
The places you find love I can't explain it but I can feel it
All around me the need to find the place
Where feeling can be safe, it's not money that buys happiness
No, it's not the shine of silver that puts the heart to rest Everybody's pushing the clock is always running
And no one ever seems to have enough
And when you least expect it
You come upon the places you find love, love, love Remember in a flash the feeling can hit you
After all the times that it missed
You reaching deep inside to find your secret heart, yeah, yeah Look around you notice you're flying
And for once you're not even trying
City lights below you like a million tiny stars, oh yeah It's a river never stopping winding in and out
But you should never doubt
It will lead you to the ocean someday
There's no way to fight it let it carry you away Everybody's dreaming waiting for the feeling
That moment when they finally rise above
But it's always in the giving
That gets you to the places you find love, love Remember in the poorest part of town
Where the sun never reaches the ground
And seeing's not believing the feeling stays alive, yeah, yeah Little children laughing and playing
'Cause they haven't learned to start hating
Never giving no, 'cause they will believe in love, sweet love
Love, love, love, love, love Remember in a flash the feeling can hit you
After all the times that it missed you
Reaching deep inside to find your secret heart, yeah, yeah Look around you notice you're flying
And for once you're not even trying
City lights below you like a million tiny stars In the poorest part of town
Where the sun never reaches the ground
Seeing's not believing the feeling stays alive, yeah, yeah Little children laughing and playing
'Cause they haven't learned to start hating
Never giving up no, they still believe in love, sweet love In a flash the feeling can hit you
After all the times that it missed you
Reaching deep inside to find your secret heart, yeah, yeah Look around you notice you're flying
And for once you're not even trying

City lights below you like a million tiny stars
