

Been On

G-Eazy

Yea (yea)
Rappers try to brag about accomplishments
But nothing you've been droppin' yet astonishes
Yea (yea)
Next shit I'm about to say is obvious
But criticism's worth some more than compliments
Yea yea (yea)
We livin' at a different speed
Tryna sprout a money tree
We started up with just a seed
Always working, never hindered by a lil fatigue
Rappin' in arenas,
I'm still playin' in a different league
Yea (yea)
You still playing wiffle ball
Droppping opportunities
I'm picking up a different call
Holdin' out for bigger cheques
To lift us all
Never kept a safety net to catch us, even if I fall
Rather risk it all than play it safe
You like to sprinkle salt and play your hate
My team can eat (a) shared plate
I had the black on black
I swear you're late[Hook]
Everyday I got some fly shit on Keepin' all black outfit on
I already bagged most the chicks that you out here tryin to get on
You just catching up to what I been on Yea that's what I been on I see what you're tryin to do
That's not even new
That's that shit I been on
All these girls you see around
I already took them down
That's that shit I been on
That's that shit I been on
That's that shit I been on I been thinking forward tho
Thinking quick and making plans

Y'all be thinking sorta slow
You be thinking more bitches
I be thinking more dough
Showed em all I do this shit
But trust me I got more to show
Yea yea
I'm just getting started now
All that swerve n I spill my bourbon, brody that's a party foul
Rappers try to swear they're cool
Really? I'm like "hardly pal"
Black on black with hair slicked back
Boy I got the hardest style
And I'm always snatchin' chicks
Flier than Aladdin's whips
Haters on the sideline bitter
Hella fuckin mad he's rich
Took your darling off your arm
Now she just wannabe daddy's bitch
They can't even find me where I'm chillin like my addy switched
Yea (yea)
Breakin' rules, we all bent 'em
Dreamin' bout these ems, told my team let's all get 'em
Make a classic song last as long as raw denim
Every track's a problem, what I spit is all venom
Like, yea[Hook]
