

Only Mine

Citizens!

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I would walk through fire if I knew you were on the other side
And I'd disappear for years if I knew that I'd stay on your mind
I would condemn myself to the fiery depths of hell
For all eternity if I knew that you'd be there as well Now I see that terrible mountain that we will have to climb
I will do it gladly, as long as I know that you're mine
And only mine
(You will be you will be you will be mine)
Only mine
(You will be you will be you will be mine)
My love I am not asking I am telling you this time I would drown myself in the ocean if I knew you would come in on the tide
And I'd commit the crime of the century if I knew that I'd meet you inside Now I see that terrible mountain that we will have to climb
I approach it gladly, as long as I know that you're mine
And only mine
(You will be you will be you will be mine)
Only mine
(You will be you will be you will be mine)
My love I am not asking I am telling you this time But if somebody else has a hold on your heart then I swear I will cut off his hands
If you've already made plans to be gone then
I'm stopping you right where you stand
This will not be over till I know that you are mine
This will not be over till I know that you are mine
And only mine (You will be you will be you will be mine) Only mine
(You will be you will be you will be mine) Only mine
(You will be you will be you will be mine)
My love I am not asking I am telling you this time
