Between Hell & Hello

Jules Shear

You're supposed to be angry and sad
Is that why people love your songs?
You're supposed to be angry and sad
Tell me what always goes wrong

This road has been told stories
Good and bad
You've seen the weak and the strong

You stopped between hell and hello
The candle blew
'til you blew it to bits
You stopped between hell and hello
It almost fits

As long as this light stays on the beach
It'll never end
The sun glares down with a moment of peace

Then it's back to the storm clouds again
You're bringing your own dangerous rain
It's your old friend

You stopped between hell and hello
The candle blew
'til you blew it to bits
You stopped between hell and hello
It almost fits
