

Don't Ever Let Nobody Drag Your Spirit Down

Eric Bibb, Maria Muldaur & Rory Block

Don't ever let nobody drag your spirit down

(Eric Bibb version) You might slip, you know you might slide.

Stumble and fall by the road side. But don't you ever let nobody, drag your spirit down.

Remember we're walking up to heaven, don't let nobody turn your around. Walk with the rich, and walk with the poor.

Learn from everyone, that's what life is for. Don't ever let nobody, drag your spirit down.

We're walking up to heaven, don't let nobody turn your around.

Some say "Yes", some say "No".

Some wait and see, which way the wind is gonna blow. Don't ever let nobody, drag your spirit down.

We're walking up to heaven, don't let nobody turn your around. I might say things, that sound strange to you.

I might preach the gospel, but I believe it's true. Don't ever let nobody, drag your spirit down.

We're walking up to heaven, don't let nobody turn your around.

You might slip, you know you might slide.

Stumble and fall by the road side. Don't ever let nobody, drag your spirit down.

We're walking up to heaven, don't let nobody turn your around.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>