I'm Scared

StoryBots

I'm scared, just like I said,
Thats why I hide under my covers
And tremble in my bed.

Of what?
I'm not quite sure
But it has three eyes, a spooky smile,
And polka-dotted fur.

I'm scared!
And I'm shaking like it's chilly!
I'm scared!
I really have the willies!
I'm scared!
And my parent say its silly,
But my imagination has my hair standing on end.

Sometimes I'm frightened,
Of something new.
Being all alone
Or strange noise at the zoo.

Sometimes it's snakes
Or halloween.
Watching scary movies
Or a fear of being seen by lots of people who are green!

When I'm scared,
I can cuddle up with someone who cares!
Check in the closet
Makes sure that nothings there!
Breathe deep
And let my feelings be shared!

Sometimes I have,
A fear of heights.
Sneaky creepy crawlers,
Or the dark and stormy nights.
Sometimes its doctors,
Who give me shots.

Taking yucky medicine,
Or itching chicken pox.

When I'm scared,
I can talk about it with someone who cares!
Check in the closet,
Make sure that nothings there.
Be brave,
And tell my fears to beware.

So there!
