

I Love You

Boy George

Love you, blimey, some men are funny(I love you
Do you love me?
I love you
Do you love me? )Take a look at yourself my darling
Don't ya like what you see
Dip your foot in the pool and wonder
Is it colder than me?Take a look at my arms oh baby
See the wounds of my youth
There were times when I could not take it
Seek the negative truthI love you
Like the stars love the sky
And they're never lonely
I love you
'cause you're weak, incomplete and
You're never phoney
I love you
Yes I do, yes I do
But you'll never own meI never said I'd be good in bedTake a look at me golden hooker
Just you swallow your pride
Take a look at me my good looker
There's a devil insideNever sleep with your windows open
Never tell them you cry
Never tell them that you feel lonely
Coz they'll spit in your eyeI love you
I used to dream of a stream
But I need an ocean
I love you
Falling head over heels
With the slightest notion
I love you
You can stay for a while
But don't pledge devotionI never said get inside my headI love you
I love you I hate you
Don't mean to frustrate you
I love you
I love you I hate you
Don't mean to frustrate you(do you love me? )See the queen
And his old reminder
That you've never been cool

Turn your back 'cause
The spite will blind you
It's incredibly cruelTake a look at the fools around you
See the beggar inside
There were times when I got so holy
Now I wish I had liedI love you
Like the stars love the sky
I love you
I love you
Yes I do, yes I do
But you'll never own meI love you
I love you
I never said I'd be good in bed
I love you
I love you
I never said get inside my head
I love you
I love you
I used to dream of a stream but I need an ocean
I love you
