California

Cheers Elephant

And there are are beautiful lands out there, and there are are terrible bands out there.
And if you donâ€™t shake some hands out there.
I guess I guess youâ€™ll never know.
And there better be sun when itâ€™s sunny, and it better be fun when itâ€™s funny.
And if you donâ€™t make some money.
I guess I guess youâ€™ll never know.

And youâ€™ll see lots of new people. Lots of new people. Yes I know. I know you will.
And youâ€™ll see lots of new places. Lotâ€™s of new faces. Yes I know. I know you will.
And If by chance you didnâ€™t find the answers that are on your mindâ€¦

And if youâ€™re off to California. Far from where you were born ya. A promised land for many before ya.
I guess I guess youâ€™d better go.

And youâ€™ll see lots of new people. Lots of new people. Yes I know. I know you will.
And youâ€™ll see lots of new places. Lotâ€™s of new faces. Yes I know. I know you will.
And If by chance you didnâ€™t find the answers that are on your mindâ€¦

And If by chance you didnâ€™t find the answers that are on your mind
And if by chance you didnâ€™t see that it relies in you and me
Go home. Go home. Go home. Home.
