

We Stand Up

Atreyu

I'll watch the sun go down this fall
And watch the night rain, please don't be casual
What's in my soul are always the first to go
So this is for me and my boys
We're always way apart
To kick and scream
To be the ones you hate to know
I could never turn my back, because this is who I know
(You know all that isn't true)
When you only have, in a world that corrupts, our struggling soul
(You know all that isn't true)
If you plead don't do it twice
I've still got something to say here
I won't bend my heart in two ways fills my soul
If honesty has a price, then I won't fucking pay it
We will take our dreams straight to the grave
Choke on this and on my words
And on us and my honesty
Then suffer consequence
Because I see the ambulance
The beauty of held in my eyes
If only for seconds
What will never take away
When we are built together
With our hands, with our hearts, with our minds
If you plead don't do it twice
I've still got something to say here
I won't bend my heart in two ways fills my soul
If honesty has a price, then I won't fucking pay it
We will take our dreams straight to the grave
If this is just in our heads
Then we'll keep on living a perfect life
One day at a time
God bless our cheating hearts and damn your lies
If this is just in our heads
Then we'll keep on living a perfect life
One day at a time
God bless us
If you plead don't do it twice

I've still got something to say here
I won't bend my heart in two ways fills my soul
If honesty has a price, then I won't fucking pay it
We will take our dreams straight to the grave
