

Free In You

Indigo Girls

A hard knock
A cold clock ticking off my time
A long look
But no luck couldn't seem to find
Or unwind into peace of mind
While I was trying A quick glance, a big chance
My heart beat like a drum
I saw you and I knew
Chances just don't come
Round again not like this
First a laugh and then a kiss And I'm free in you
I've got no worries on my mind
I know what to do
That's to treat you right and love you kind
Thank you ever on my mind
Love is just like breathing when it's true
And I'm free in you The lost time and self pride
Are my big mistakes
A clear voice, a bad choice
Sounding like an ache
In my day not too bad
But too real to go away But now I'm free in you
I've got no worries on my mind
I know what to do
That's to treat you right and love you kind
Thank you ever on my mind
Love is just like breathing when it's true
And I'm free in you And I don't know
How you show such gentle disregard
For the ugly in me that I see
That for so long I took so hard
(I took so hard) But I truly believe
(I truly believe)
That you see the best in me
(That you see the best in me)
I'm enough for your love
(Love for your thoughts)
And that thought sets me free
(And I'm free) Free in you

Got no worries on my mind
I know what to do
That's to treat you right and love you kind
Thank you ever on my mind
Love is just like breathing when it's true
And I'm free in you
Yes, I'm free in you
