

Desert Sunrise

Brett Dennen

A desert sunrise
you warm my soul
Painting me in shades of gray
Covering me whole
And I?m a lizard Sunbathing in your radiance
Oh, I come out of hiding
So sweet, so sweet you are
If I could only have a taste,
Wrap my lips around your flavor
Just because you are you, just because you are So beautiful

And I?ve been waiting all this life
In the company of one and I know I am young but I don?t want to be alone
If you could only just consider the two of us and I know darling I could be so good to you

I see you rising on the horizon
Bringing light into the day and I?m coasting on your rays
When I awoke you spoke through the midst of a mystic bliss
Casting shadows
On all my dismal yesterdays
Do you remember that you told me darling that was so real
I tell you all my tears for you are real
We?ll cross that bridge again someday.
I know we will.
I hope we will

A Desert sunset a lullaby
If I could give it all to you
If you?d only let me try Sing so sweetly it?s my only wish Music drips from your lips like sweet sips of a summer?s kiss like summer rain drops

Precious tongues twist
And I want to live in your heart

And I?ve been waiting all this life in the company of one
And I know I am young, but I don?t want to be alone
If you could only just consider the two of us, I know darling I could be so good to you.
Mmm mmm.

I see you rising on the horizon
bringing light into the day
And I?m coasting on your rays
When I awoke you spoke through the midst of a mystic bliss
Casting shadows
on all my dismal yesterdays
Do you remember that you told me darling
That that was so real I tell you all my tears for you are real
We?ll cross that bridge again someday.
I know we will.
I hope we will

Desert moonrise into the night
Before we lay our heads I wish to walk under the splendor of starlight Sing so sweetly it?s the sweetest sound
And I become weak in the knees and I drop down and kiss the ground And all my cares lie far below
In this earth I wish to die
In this hearth my fire grows
