

Perfect Two (breakup Version)

Auburn

always used to talk real late after midnight now the only thing we do on the phone is fight is there a way to make this go away i dont think were gonna be okay you were my hero and i was your sidekick now your gonna be the tear that i cry when we split baby i dont thin i can do this it seems so wrong making up with only one kiss dont think that i could ever be able to stay with you know baby cause in time i know that we'll both see were not meant to be cause youre the one that makes me cry you would never ever save me all your words are full of lies your not the one i wanna marry cause baby cant you see were just a fantasy theres nothing we can do were not the perfect two were not the perfect two were not the perfect two baby me and you were not the perfect two i thought you were my prince and i was your princess now that were here all of that is meaning less i think i was a fool for letting you fill the spaces between my hands and my diary pages you used to be the one that made me happy you used to tell me you were lucky to have me now youre as cold as the winter weather but i dont care cause were no longer together dont think that i could ever be able to stay with you now baby cause in time i now that well both see were not meant to be 'Cause you're the one that makes me cry

You would never ever save me
All your words are full of lies
You're not the one I wanna marry
'Cause baby can't you see
We're just a fantasy
There's nothing we can do
We're not the perfect two
We're not the perfect two
We're not the perfect two
Baby me and you

We're not the perfect two Oh oooh oooh oh... You know that I'll never love you Like the way I ever used to
But you I will remember you
Now that I'm gone I smile
It took me quite a while
To see we won't walk down the aisle 'Cause you're the one that makes me cry

You would never ever save me
All your words are full of lies
You're not the one I wanna marry
'Cause baby can't you see
We're just a fantasy
There's nothing we can do
We're not the perfect two
We're not the perfect two
We're not the perfect two
Baby me and you
