

Silly Beast

Sevendust

So if my eyes are sewn
Just let me be
Don't say a word, I go alone
And if you think it's so wrong
Just draw the line and warn the world
The kill is onBeneath this wonderful lie you mastered
You find a dark place,
To throw away all the light like a coward
Your miracle's a lie to us allFor all the seasons you have lost
You beg for time
You waste the words
(Just let it go)
And on your dying
You hold the line,
Forget the worldYou're on your ownBeneath this wonderful lie you mastered
You find a dark place
To throw away all the light like a coward
Your miracle's a lieBeneath this wonderful lie you mastered
You find a dark place,
To throw away all the light like a coward
Your miracle's a lie to us allBeneath this wonderful lie you mastered
You find a dark place
To throw away all the light like a coward
Your miracle's a lieBeneath this wonderful lie you mastered
You find a dark place,
To throw away all the light like a coward
Your miracle's a lie to us all
