Youâ€™re Welcome

Wavves

Sand trap, heart attack
Pulling on a cigarette
Low life, your life
Sharper than a hunting knife
New sun rising up, filling up the empty cupStill I'm smiling, laughter fills the sky
One by one, you'll thank meYou ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
I need some relief, let the world
Do its own spinningStill I'm smiling, laughter fills the sky
One by one, you'll thank meYou ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
You ain't gotta mention it, ain't gotta mention it
You're welcome, welcome
