

Don't Believe a Word That I Say

Shiny Penny

I'm running
For something
Completely terrifying
And I'm trying to make it my own
But I'm hoping
For something
That only time can show me
So why can't my head let it go? I just want a little peace in my mind
But the more that I learn the harder I try
'Hit the ground from the nest
And I'm still alive
But I'm failing the test
I'm living a lie So don't believe a word that I say
I'm only learning and I'm full of mistakes
My brain is jumping all out of place
Oh why am I
Holding on to what's in the way? I wonder
Why comfort
Is something I seek after
When there's so much I'll never know
I try to push further
And get stronger
But every thought gets harder and harder
So why can't I just let it go? Don't believe a word that I say
I'm only learning and I'm full of mistakes
My brain is jumping all out of place
Oh why am I
Holding on to what's in the way? I'm tired of needing Something to fill me
Tired of seeking
Something that kills me
I'm tired of wishing for something more
When I know it's only gonna' make me want a little more' Said I'm I'm tired of needing Something to fill me
Tired of seeking
Something that kills me
I'm tired of wishing for something more
When I know it's only gonna'

make me want a little moreSoDon't believe a word that I say

Im only learning and I'm full of mistakes

My brain is jumping all out of place

Oh why am I

Holding on to what's in the way?I'm holding on to what's in the wayI'm holding on to what's in the way
