

Everybody Knows That You're Insane

Queens of the Stone Age

You wanna know why you feel so hollow?
Because you are
You're missing out?
Well if you say so
Then you're missing outEverybody knows that you're insane
Everybody knows that you're insaneYou wanna know
Just how long you can hide from
What you are?
Not very longI have been lost
Down every road I follow
Out in the dark
On my way homeEverybody knows that you're insane
Everybody knows that you're insane
Everybody knows that you're insane
Everybody knows that you're insaneBut I feel nothing, am I better yet
But I feel nothing, am I better yet
But I feel nothing, am I better yet
But I feel nothing, am I better yetEverybody knows that you are insane
Everybody knows that you are insane
Everybody knows that you are insane
Everybody knows that you are insane
