

Upper Sixth Loan Shark

Jethro Tull's Ian Anderson

Where did it come from, where's it going?
Upper sixth loan shark, numbers flowing
From the pen that never forgets,
Recording ledgers, each-way safe bets. Fauntleroy's and first form fags, allowances all overspent.
Pater's guilty generosity safely deposited against rainy day. There's money in those goddamn hills.
Interest in sugar-coated bitter pills.
Margins made from Tompkins Minor
Float aspirations, nothing finer...

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>