Keep The Glove

Dinosaur Jr.

Hey babe, where'd you go
Just left it sitting in the road
You can drape it all over your room
Sit back and let it shower youLeft it, hoping you'd see it
And wanted to stay
Wish someone told me
There's a better wayThe past will blow away
Don't mind if I have to borrow
Long as I come away
Something you'll dig tomorrowIt's all I could think of Found this thing out back
Hope it makes it up for all I lack
They've all got a shot with youChance I had, I kinda blew
It's all there in that bag
Didn't turn out like I hoped
Guess it's a dragThe past will blow away
Don't mind if I have to borrow
Long as I come away
Something you'll dig tomorrow
It's all I could think ofIf you won't take my hand
Keep the glove
