

Sunrise

The Cerny Brothers

sun rising on your face
i just want it to feel new
by the mountains and the lake i wanna climb there with you made a fool of myself i'm so sorry, my dear close the books on the shelf i never read them for the fear that i might find you here

sittin' by the fire
watching you, my dear

(you) said you had a request so i sang it my best lost in the wilderness, i've got something to confess i can hear you strumming from underneath my covers you said you were humming a song of two lovers

sittin' by the fire
watchin' you, my dear

hey, yeah

i'm sittin' by the fire watching you, oh
