

Anyway

Paul McCartney

If you love me, won't you call me?
I've been waiting, waiting too long
In my soul is constant yearning
Always singing, singing this song Only love is strong enough
To take it on the chin
When did I begin
To fall? Anyway, anyway
You can make that call
You feel free
To make yourself at home If we could be closer longer
That would help me, help me so much
We can cure each others sorrow
Won't you please, please, please get in touch? If a love is strong enough
It may never end
Why would I pretend
To fall? Anyway, anyway
You can make that call
You feel free
To make yourself at home Anyway, anyway
Anyway at all
Anyway that you can make
That call
