One By One

Royal Hunt

I've always been the perfect man for fightin',
I've always been the one who'd never lose.
Get up'n'play - it used to be exciting,
A chance to win - but there's no excuse.
But now I feel I've spent my life for nothing,
No chances left - confusions like a rain.
One step ahead won't help - I'm loosin' something.
Another victory will bring another pain...And I feel like a stranger - lost and found,
In the heat of the danger - another time around.One by one - we're fallin' on the burnin' ground.
One by one - keep movin' round'n'round.
One by one - just fallin' like shootin' stars.
One by one - we'll just rust behind the bars...I'm on track, no matter how I'm movin'
From light to light - another dusty place.
No one around - aware of what you're doin',
Forgotten hero - an unknown face.
Straight through the heart - no pain, cos there's nothing.Back to the past - just injuries insight,
No way to stop - watch out, cos' evil laughin',
No use screamin' - it's sinkin in the night.Take a look in the mirror - see if you're blind,
Keep chasin' the hero - in another time...
