Hell to the Liars

London Grammar

Hell to the liars
Here's to you and me
Hell to the best of us
Here's to you and meHell to the righteous ones
Here's to them
The grey-suited walkers
Prestigious menHere's to the things you love
Here's to those you find in love
Hell to the rest of us
Here's to the things you love
Here's to the things you love
Oooh
Those who are born with love
Here's to you trying
And I'm no better than those I judge
With all my sufferingHell to the liars
Here's to you and me
I look way above us so you know I'm freeHere's to the things you love
Here's to those you find in love
Hell to the rest of us
Here's to the things you love
Here's to the things you loveHere's to the things you love
Here's to those you find in love
Hell to the rest of us
Here's to the things you love
Here's to the things you love
