

The Devil Is Real

Trails

INTROthere grows an iron sky my life is yours to take like moths drawn to a flame my hours are forsaketocomfort you and please your lust for things that soon will fadehigher that I lift you up the steeper I will fallVERSE I am here for your life but I am afraid of you the way you carry yourself that certain sent on you I am like a dog who has been trained to feed whenever we use a bell you know exactly when they're taking my leashI hate the weakness that I feel when I am around you I hate that i know all these things but so I find myself the memories of beautiful times I remind myself of harving what's objective memories of liesjust to processes the brain waves hoping with an addiction that I had been having ever since I laid my eyes on the friction you cause there still is beauty in the chaos you spew I cut my lipREFRAIN
the devil is real and he carries your nameCHORUS there lies an iron sky over everything youve done deprive me of my sleep as I wander towards the sun I write my songs, you sing along but dont you hear one word I sayin truth one day I'll kill us both come see the man you've madeVERSE into the space no one makes me feel the way you made me I still compare everyone to you in every relation and if they'd ask you you'd still say that its all my fault and that it's my doing the wrong control with the false hope you put in the back of my mind that one day we'll be together again and all wounds could heal in time but you couldn't love me like the way I'd love you I am feeling sick and you've infected all of thisREFRAIN

as I wander towards the sunI write my songs, you sing along but dont you hear one word I sayin truth one day I'll kill us both come see the man you've madethe lies an iron sky over everything you've done
as I wander towards the sunI write my songs, you sing along
come see the man you've made
