Riot In the Dungeons

Yngwie Malmsteen

Locked up in chains, backs to the wall
Tick like a time bomb till we hear the call
Pushed from outside, thrown underground
Frozen in time we wait for the soundOh, I feel something comin'
Feels like a riot in the dungeonTrapped behind bars, prisoners of death
All hope is ours, we can't give up yet
Ready to fight, to get what we need
Die on your feet or live on your kneesOh, I feel something comin'
Feels like a riot in the dungeon
You stand and die or start your runnin'
'Cause there's a riot in the dungeonIt's got to give, it's gonna break
Dying to live, our freedom's at stake
Beating the odds with our hearts and blood
We won't give in till they've had enoughOh, I feel something comin'
Feels like a riot in the dungeon
You stand and die or start your runnin'
'Cause there's a riot in the dungeon
