

Bitch Like You

Saliva

Dying for attention
Are you feeling insecure?
Starring your addiction
Leaves you, leaves you wanting more
You can't face yourself but you can see the writing on the walls
You just blame the world and say it's someone else when it's all your fault
Maybe, maybe you're a little crazy
Out of my way, got no time for a bitch like you
Psycho, psycho, you're so fucking crazy
Out of my way, got no time for a bitch like you
Picture perfect, guilty conscience
But it's all for show
Baptize your misery
With your chemicals
Drag it out some more, you think that there's a cure to save you
You abuse yourself, pretend it's someone else but it's all you
It's all you
Maybe, maybe you're a little crazy
Out of my way, got no time for a bitch like you
Psycho, psycho, you're so fucking crazy
Out of my way, got no time for a bitch like you
How does it feel to be all alone?
How does it feel to be on your own?
All alone, on your own
All alone, on your own
Face to face with the lies that you've broken
You can't hide behind the lies you've chosen
You're killing yourself, killing yourself, killing yourself
Maybe, maybe you're a little crazy
Out of my way, got no time for a bitch like you
Psycho, psycho, you're so fucking crazy
Out of my way, got no time for a bitch like you
Out of my way, got no time for a bitch like you
