Hunting for Pearls

iamamiwhoami

Deep blue diver, with their hopes in your hands
Won't you take me with you to another land?
Pure sapphire hiding in the sands
All the darkest depths that are known to manJoin me
There is nothing we can't doWhat composure and charmed sleight-of-hand?
At night I lay awake and hear you call my nameIn the strangest lands I will grasp my chance
Sing the unsung ways, I have searched through spaceAnd I shuckle myself, I risk it all
Bringing us closer to the core
Returning treasures to the shoreAnd together we take back what is yours
Hunting for pearls on the ocean floor
Force the shutting of the doorDays are hollow
Nights come to murder faith
I shut my eyes, I focus not to lose her senseIt's her we follow
She holds the secrets buried
I know the place
She goes, I wave him farewellJoin me
There is nothing we can't doIn the strangest lands I will grasp my chance
Sing the unsung ways, I have searched through spaceAnd I shuckle myself, I risk it all
Bringing us closer to the core
Returning treasures to the shoreAnd together we take back what is yours
Hunting for pearls on the ocean floor
Force the shutting of the door
