If You Go

Yeng Constantino

Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Yeah
Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Yeah
Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Yeah
Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Bop-Bop Yeah
You've forgotten we were strange
Guess somewhere we got cold
Now every little bird is tame
Their wings are clipped in gold
Fear puts your heart on ice
For some other rainy day
You'll only know that you're alive
When I melt the ice away
My life, my dreams, my everything
Is all yours, babe
I?m willing to complete this act of faith
?Cause living only happens when you wake
If you go
If you stay
Sometimes better breaking baby, in the sun
Before it's gone
If you love
If you feel
If you wonder how this heaven could be real
Then let it run
Some might say ain?t no sun without the rain
Like I knew. I knew, yeah
Some might say nothing given, nothing gained
I guess that?s true, how 'bout you, babe?
My life, my dreams, everything
Is all yours, baby
I?m willing to complete this act of faith
?Cause living only happens when you wake
If you go
If you stay

Sometimes better breaking baby, in the sun
Before it's gone
If you love
If you feel

If you wonder how this heaven could be real
Then let it run, oh
'Cause I?d like, like
To be somebody who
You take a chance on
I would take a chance on you
Everyday
Like, like to be somebody who
You take a chance on
Everyday
I got my summer sun
I'll take my love and run
I've got you babe
Oh, yeah
?Cause I need somebody?s love
And half is not enough
To make me stay
I?ve got you babe
If you go
If you stay
If you love
If you feel
Then let it run
If you go, if you stay
