The Devil In Me

Kate Voegele

Far in the distance
This is the view from the other side
How did I let this pass me by?You took me for granted
Planted thorns in this garden of mine
What are the chances? My hope has diedPlease have mercy, youve unnerved me
I don't deserve this pain, noSo don't break my heart, I ain't never done
Nothing to deserve this
And I'm torn apart, you've had your fun
Do you suppose I earned it?Do you not see
How I'm begging on my knees?
Now don't speak, don't breathe
You bring out the devil in meThinking it over
Those were days dark as ebony night
The end of October seemed like a lifetimeI had a suspicion
But didn't want to believe you a liar
You had a mission to prove me rightYou took my trust, ground it to dust
Found out I know better, yeah-yeahSo don't break my heart, I ain't never done
Nothing to deserve this
And I'm torn apart, you've had your fun
Do you suppose I earned it?Do you not see
How I'm begging on my knees?
Now don't speak, don't breathe
You bring out the devilAnd I don't wanna feel the pain
And I don't want another day
Shackled to your ball and chainYou're entirely a pain
And I'm so tired of explaining
The sensation of no NovocainI don't have a prayer
If there is no charity in your heart
Couldnt you spare me? I've done my part, yeahDon't break my heart, I ain't never done
Nothing to deserve this
And I'm torn apart, you've had your fun
Do you suppose I earned it?Do you not see
How I'm begging on my knees?
Now don't speak, don't breathe
You bring out the devilDon't break my heart, I ain't never done
Nothing to deserve this
And I'm torn apart, you've had your fun
Do you suppose I earned it?Do you not see
How I'm begging on my knees?

Now don't speak, don't breathe
You bring out the devil in meOut the devil in me
Out the devil in me
Devil in me
Devil in me
