

8:05

Moby Grape

Eight-oh-five.I guess you're leaving soonI can't go on without youIt's useless to tryTo love you would be so goodTo keep you would be so wonderfulHere is my heart that I giveIt's all that I havePlease change your mindBefore my sunshine is goneDo you think you could tryDo you think you could tryDo you think you could try?Please understand how I feelUntil I can prove it to youDon't fill my world with rainYou know your tears will only bring pain in my heart8:05I guess you're leaving... goodbye
