Psychomania

The Damned

Psychomania
PsychomaniaShe is the substance of my dreams
A spectra in the wind
Take my dare, take me there
On the trail of the jewel trailIf you've got a notion
Like a bullet set in motion
Shining chrome shiny leather
Penetrate the night foreverPsychomania
PsychomaniaThe pleasure of the beast
Cursing through our veins
Burn the night burn the day
A burning light on our a moonlight flightEverything blurs in the shadow
Straight and true shot like an arrow
Tales of love tales of terror
Ghost-riders go hell for leatherPsychomania, drives me crazier
Psychomania
PsychomaniaEverything blurs in the shadow
Straight and true shot like an arrow
Tales of love tales of terror
Ghost-riders go hell for leatherStreak the night with our burning flight
Crimson eyes that blur in the twilight
Psychomania, drives me crazier
Psychomania, drives me crazierEverything blurs in the shadow
Straight and true shot like an arrow
Like a spectra in the wind
She is the substance of my dreamsPsychomania, drives me crazier
