

Hurt Lovers

Blue

When the words that you wanted to say
Are all coming out wrong
When you burst into tears
Though you're trying so hard to be strong
Oh
We're standing in
Allowed to fight
Trying to make two wrongs right Hurt lovers, hurt, hurt lovers oh
Don't give up, don't, don't give up no
Take cover
We can't just let it go
We gotta try
We gotta try So when all that you ever believe
Comes apart at the seams
And when all of the bridges you build
Washed away in a stream Oh
Whatever comes
It's not the end
We gotta fight
And take a stand Hurt lovers, hurt, hurt lovers oh
Don't give up, don't, don't give up no
Take cover
We can't just let it go
We gotta try
We gotta try Hurt lovers, hurt so bad again
Find something, to make things right again
It don't matter who wins out in the end
We gotta try
We gotta try
Even when you lose her
And you played the last card
You know
You know, you know We're standing in
Allowed to fight
Trying to make two wrongs right Hurt lovers, hurt, hurt lovers oh
Don't give up, don't, don't give up no
We gotta try
We gotta try Hurt lovers, hurt, hurt lovers oh
Don't give up, don't, don't give up no

Take cover
We can't just let it go
We gotta try
We gotta try Hurt lovers, hurt so bad again
Find something, to make things right again
It don't matter who wins out in the end We gotta try
We gotta try
