I Surrender

Clare Maguire

Watching a fire, skipping under thunder
Crossing a wire, connecting undercover
Be mine, it's a physical thing
I wanna give you all the love I can give
The love I can give'Cause you make me surrender
With you I'm forced to surrenderBurying rivers, drowning all our fears
Burning the bridges, pushing all the gears
Be mine, it's a physical thing
I wanna give you all the love I can give
The love I can give'Cause you make me surrender
With you I'm forced to surrenderI'm letting go waving this white flag
I've given up the fight, given up the fight
'Cause you make me surrenderLosing a battle, head into the shallow
Let go of the handle, let us be alone now
Let us be alone now, let us be alone now'Cause you make me surrender
With you I'm forced to surrenderI'm letting go waving this white flag
I've given up the fight, given up the fight
'Cause you make me surrenderYes, you make me surrender
With you I'm forced to surrender
