Hard Times

Don Edwards

Come all you good people
Wherever you be.
I'll sing you a song
It's a sad tragedy.

Everybody's grabbing
For the 'pie in the sky'
And they're cheating each other
And I'll tell you why

It's hard times in the country
It's hard times I cried
If the times they don't kill me
I'll live till I die

Since cheating has grown
To be such a fashion
I believe in my soul
It'll ruin the whole nation

Fought and we died
For the 'Land of the Free'
Now the 'Home of the Brave'
Is all laid up with greed

It's hard times in the country
It's hard times I cried
If the times they don't kill me
I'll live till I die

Now there's the politicians
In Washington D.C.
They've civilized freedom
Till there ain't nothing free

And there's too many rules
And there's too many laws
Bad men in high places
And good men on the dodge

It's hard times in the country
It's hard times I cried
If the times they don't kill me
I'll live till I die

Big government they're preaching
Their protection creed
They pander big business and all of their greed

Globalization
Their free trade plan
To put the whole world
In a few strong hands

It's hard times in the country
If the times they don't kill me
I'll live till I die

Republicrats and Democans
It ain't no surprise
Got their hands full of gimme
Got their mouths full of lies

Got this to say
That they're just two wings
Of the same bird of prey

It's hard times in the country
If the times they don't kill me
I'll live till I die

Now our backs
Are against the wall
Gonna make a stand
We have no choice at all

No where to run
No where to hide
We must take back our country
Before America dies

Hard times in the country

Lord it's hard ain't it hard
If the times they don't kill me
I'll live till I die

Now this is a warning
I hope you take heed
Don't give up your freedom
For Security

Security is a myth
There ain't no such thing
Tell 'm all to go to hell
Let Freedom Ring!

It's hard times in the country
If the times they don't kill me
I'll live till I die
