Shallow Pockets

Before Today

We call for all of those in need of hope
We call for all those to say this is the daySo tell me how can
You shake hands with a clenched fist
And tell me how can
You bullet the blue skySo how long, how long does it take
For offers to be made
So how long, how long does it take
For offers to be made, long
Long, longCall us to die, we'll never answer
You can't keep us under
