Beeswing

Richard Thompson

I was nineteen when I came to town

They called it the Summer of Love

They were burning babies, burning flags

The hawks against the doves

I took a job in the steamie

Down on Cauldrum Street

And I fell in love with a laundry girl

Who was working next to meOh she was a rare thing, fine as a bee's wing

So fine a breath of wind might blow her away

She was a lost child, oh she was running wild

She said, "As long as there's no price on love, I'll stay

And you wouldn't want me any other way"Brown hair zig-zag around her face

And a look of half-surprise

Like a fox caught in the headlights

There was animal in her eyes

She said, "Young man, oh can't you see

I'm not the factory kind

If you don't take me out of here

I'll surely lose my mind"Oh she was a rare thing, fine as a bee's wing

So fine that I might crush her where she lay

She was a lost child, she was running wild

She said, "As long as there's no price on love, I'll stay

And you wouldn't want me any other way"We busked around the market towns

And picked fruit down in Kent

And we could tinker lamps and pots

And knives wherever we went

And I said that we might settle down

Get a few acres dug

Fire burning in the hearth and babies on the rugShe said "Oh man, you foolish man

It surely sounds like hell

You might be Lord of half the world

You'll not own me as well"Oh she was a rare thing, fine as a bee's wing

So fine a breath of wind might blow her away

She was a lost child, oh she was running wild

She said, "As long as there's no price on love, I'll stay

And you wouldn't want me any other way"We was camping down the Gower one time

The work was pretty good

She thought we shouldn't wait for the frost

And I thought maybe we should

We was drinking more in those days And tempers reached a pitch And like a fool I let her run With the rambling itchOh the last I heard she's sleeping rough

Back on the Derby beat White Horse in her hip pocket

And a wolfhound at her feet

And they say she even married once

A man named Romany Brown

But even a gypsy caravan

Was too much settling downAnd they say her flower is faded now

Hard weather and hard booze

But maybe that's just the price

You pay for the chains you refuseOh she was a rare thing, fine as a bee's wing

And I miss her more than ever words could say

If I could just taste all of her wildness now

If I could hold her in my arms today

Well I wouldn't want her any other way
