Communion

Dog Fashion Disco

Yesterday everything was fine
I read another dead chapter in the book of life
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah
The dance
because he's already dead
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah
Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue
Yesterday I turned my blood into wine
And my crown of thorns has never felt so right
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah
Another chance to forget myself
To harbor the damned to the promised land
And now my soul's save
Hallelujah
Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue
Yesterday everything was fine
I read another dead chapter in the book of life
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah
Yesterday I turned my blood into wine
And my crown of thorns has never felt so right
And now my soul's saved
Hallelujah
Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue (x2)
Because I lied to you
In a world that's so untrue (x2)
