Burn

Ana Johnsson

Let's see how fast you burn
Let's watch you twist and turn
They're calling from the other side
To give what you deserveYou knew there would come a time
When you want God to be on your side
The gates to heaven were open wide
I guess it wasn't your timeDo you remember the feeling?
When life had a meaning
You say that you do, that you care, that you bleed
But you don'tFrom ashes into dust, when did you give up?
You turned your back on all of your friends
Got no one left to hurtYou could have turned around
But you keep letting yourself down
When your whole world comes crashing to the ground
Say who's got you nowDo you remember the feeling
When life had a meaning?
You said that you did, that you care, that you bled
But you don'tDeepest wishes, salty kisses is haunting you tonight
Bits and pieces, you lay sleepless waiting for the lightLet's see how fast you burn
There's a point of no return
You fought so hard just to put up a fight
Living as you learnedDo you remember the feeling
When life had a meaning?
You said that you do, that you care, that you bleed
But you don'tDo you remember the feeling
When life had a meaning?
You say that you do, that you care, that you bleed
But you don'tDo you remember the feeling
The things you believed in?
You said that you did, that you care, that you bled
But you don'tLet's see you burn, burn, burn
Let's see you burn, burn, burn
