I Like That You Can See It

Girlpool

Walk up to the front door
Cold sweat and shaky
I'm here just to talkIs it pouring out my body?
My nervous aching
I like that you can see itMy mind is almost nineteen
And I still feel angry
I'm searching for the reasonAnd I think it's kinda crazy
That I'm trying everything
Soft hands on my face
And I'm feeling nothingMy mind is almost nineteen
And I still feel angry
Is it pouring out my body?
My nervous aching
