Now Thy Death Day Come

Exodus

Bloodied, cleaved and mutilated
Dead bodies amputated
Mans bloody inclination
God's final abdicationAngels weep on bended knee
So begins the tyranny
The fallen one will rise again
So ends the time of manMy will be done
Now they death day comeNever more the sound of laughter
Misery for ever after
The cries of suffering
Are what the death day bringNo one gives the benediction
All hear the malediction
Lucifer makes his ascent
No words for mans lamentMy will be done
Now they death day comeOn black wings I take to the sky
Scouring the land
Rejoicing in and laughing in
The folly of manCenturies of hatred
Centuries of fear
Have led you to the end of days
And the one you so revereThe gates of heaven have been shattered
Wings of angels torn and tattered
All due to mankind's thirst
For war so well rehearsedWhen you see my demon eyes
Too late to apologize
Can you feel the irony?
War for all eternityMy will be done
Now they death day come
