Call Me Over

Dusky Grey

I can't sleep when I think of you there
You're so hard to find in an empty room Yeah
Why'd I keep holding on to you
Feel my mind turning into two
I've running from myself haven't you too
Feels like I've been someone else what would you do
I've been running from myself
I feel like I've been someone else and now I know
Call me over, gotta get some love I'm out of my mind
Hold up, hold up I'm wasted and I'm blind
Call me over, gotta get this right with you by my side
My love, my love we're losing on a high
You know I know I can see right through ya
Blow after blow is your golden rule Yeah ooh oh
We can get away, cause it's not for you to say
I've found another way, follow your heart and make a change
I've been running from myself haven't you too
Feels like I've been someone else what would you do
I've been running from myself
I feel like I've been someone else and now I know
Call me over, gotta get some love I'm out of my mind
Hold up, hold up I'm wasted and I'm blind
Call me over, gotta get this right with you by my side
My love, my love we're losing on a high
Call me over with you by my side
My love, my love
Call me over away from these lies
My love, my love we're losing on a high
No more looking back
Over our shoulders
No more honding back
We're closer to closure
And I've been running from myself
I feel like I've been someone else
I've been running from myself
I feel like I've been someone else what would you do
Call me over, gotta get some love I'm out of my mind
Hold up, hold up I'm wasted and I'm blind
Call me over, gotta get this right with you by my side

My love, my love we're losing on a high
Call me over with you by my side
My love, my love
Call me over away from these lies
My love, my love we're losing on a high
