Tropics

You don't know where you're going
And there's beauty in that I see
It's something we shareYou had a lot to show me
Then you disappear somewhere
It's hard not to careDon't forget everything we had Let it come back to youDon't forget everything we had
Let it come back to youIt's so quiet without you now
That's the painful truth
It's so quiet
Quiet
It's so
Quiet
QuietWhen I drifted further I could hardly see
I'm losing all that was thereAnd I know that I can't help you
Even if I swear I'll never
Put your heart between my teethDon't forget everything we had
Let it come back to you
It's so quiet without you now
That's the painful truthDon't forget everything we had
Let it come back to you
It's so quiet without you now
That's the painful truth
It's so quiet
Quiet
It's so
Quiet
QuietI wish I'd known it was the last time
I wish I'd known it was the last time
I wish I'd known it was the last time
I wish I'd known it was the last time
