

Quail

Parchim

You think I clog up the drain
That it all sounds the same
You hear the strange sound
This is what I am
No apologies You say you are the real
You say you are the real No one wants this
Nobody but you
Incapable of waking up
Emnity
Its you or nothing
Id take a blank wall any day
No more wasted breath
No more If its so simple
Everytime
I die in your conflicting mind
If its so simple
Everytime
I die in your conflicting mind You say you are the real
You say you are the real The real coward
