Not Surprised

Kaiser Chiefs

Hey, I'm back again
Did I see you in the park?
But the evening came
And I lost you in the dark
Passed the village green
Where you were crouching by the bins
You were on your own
And hanging by the swings
And I was surprised
Now I'm not surprised
That you changed your mind
And you tried to hide (x2)
And I don't feel comfortable talking
To anybody except you
I don't feel comfortable talking
To anybody else
Hey, I'm back again
Was the world too small for you?
You were gone a year
And you'd done everything to do
It's a sad affair

Because nobody ever wins
Down the fire escape
I'll meet you by the bins
And I was surprised
Now I'm not surprised
That you changed your mind
And you tried to hide (x2)
And I don't feel comfortable talking
To anybody except you
I don't feel comfortable talking
To anybody else
And so far it's been civilised
So far it's been fine
It's just the way it used to be
Remember that you're mine
And I don't feel comfortable talking
To anybody except you

I don't feel comfortable talking
To anybody else (x2)
