

Place in My Heart

Raze

Nothing compares to a mother's love
A hiding place when push comes to shove
Cinderella's dreams, diamond rings
I try to fill my heart, with earthly things Still there is a place that seems so empty
It's the deepest part of me that only you can fill There's a place in my heart, that I want you near
It's a place in my heart, I hold most dear
There's a place in my heart that wants you so
But it's so hard to let it go Just the other day, I turned my thoughts astray
From a history of reason to give my heart away
This thought progressed through time, the path seemed unkind
Lonely and clear it overwhelmed my mind And if I release this part of me, dear Lord
Is it true what You say am I received as Your child There's a place in my heart, that I want you near
It's a place in my heart, I hold most dear
There's a place in my heart that wants you so
But it's so hard to let it go Life is hard, this world is cold, I need you more and more today
I build up walls to stop the pain it still won't go won't go away
Surrendering on bended knee this part of me I surrender to you There's a place in my heart, that I want you near
It's a place in my heart, I hold most dear
There's a place in my heart that wants you so
And I wouldn't let it go There's a place in my heart, that I want you near
It's a place in my heart, I hold most dear
There's a place in my heart that wants you so
And I wouldn't let it go There's a place in my heart, that I want you near
It's a place in my heart, I hold most dear
There's a place in my heart that wants you so
And I wouldn't let it go There's a place in my heart, that I want you near
It's a place in my heart, I hold most dear
There's a place in my heart that wants you so
And I wouldn't let it go There's a place in my heart, that I want you near
It's a place in my heart, I hold most dear
There's a place in my heart that wants you so
And I wouldn't let it go
