The (Pretty) Good Life

Select Start

I've got a million records you've never heard with movie posters I stole from work I've got my dad's old car that I'll drive til it dies I got shut down hard by a virgin last nightbut it's alright those were the best times i've ever had yea, it's all good there's nothing that I would take backso hold on, right now I'm a loser but I know how to get down see it's funny how you met me standing out in the rain on a thursday here's to late nights, here's to long drives there we are chasing dreams of a good life now it makes me wonder how I'm still aroundI've called in sick a thousand times to hang with girls I thought I liked with no plans worked out and a pull out couch I believe I've arrived I fell to my knees when I heard the key of my favorite artist sing it was alright
because they were the best times
